

2009 Scholarship Winner

West Shore Jr/Sr High School Student wins Annual Competition

Ms Emily Tam, a senior at West Shore Jr/Sr High School has been selected as the Melbourne Art Festival's 2009 Scholarship Winner.

Ms Tam was selected from among four finalists for the award based on her academic record, extracurricular activities, community service, numerous awards and honors and the quality of her art as represented by work submitted for consideration.

The scholarship is awarded annually to a public, private or home-schooled graduate from Brevard County who has been accepted at an institution of higher learning in a visual or graphic arts program.

Ms Tam has been accepted by both the Ringling College of Art and Design in Sarasota, Florida and by the Pratt Institute in New York.
