

Melbourne Art Festival

April 28 & 29, 2012

Celebrating 28 years

President's Message

I hope this newsletter finds everyone well. As we enter these last weeks of summer, the Board of Directors has been diligently working toward organizing the 2012 Melbourne Art Festival. As new and returning members have been elected to our Board of Directors, I look forward to working with everyone on improving on our very successful 2011 Melbourne Art Festival.

As many of you know, we are not-for-profit organization that is staffed 100% by volunteers. It's due to the dedication of these volunteers that helps the Festival rank in the top 40 of all art festivals in the country every year.

On September 14th our first general committee meetings start, so if you volunteered during the weekend or are new to the area or are a life-long resident of our fine community and are interested in becoming part of the Melbourne Art Festival, I encourage you to attend a general committee meeting. For more information, please check out our website, melbournearts.org.
